GREAT AMERICAN SALES

PO BOX 148

COOLIN, IDAHO 83821

208-443-3898

Welcome to our First Annual Buy or Bid Sale. We have taken a small sampling from our inventory and described some of the highlights from each sale. No matter what area of numismatics you are interested in, there is something for you. Just read through the sale.

Here's how it works..... This is both a Fixed Price List and a Mail Bid Sale in one. You can buy anything at the price listed — or — if you prefer, you may send in your bid on any lot. Buyers will naturally get preference and quantities are limited to stock on hand. Please read the bidding instructions below.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

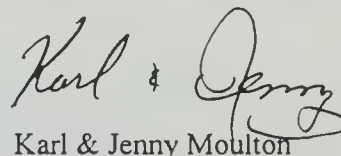

Our Winter Address beginning October 10, 1997, is:

PO BOX 3015

Wickenburg, AZ 85358

Yes, we are heading south for the winter until April 1, 1998; we will be back in Coolin after that time. This list will remain in effect as our price list until we send out a comprehensive Fixed Price List sometime before the end of the year. The next list you'll receive will include our Arizona phone number (which we don't have yet).

As always, we extend a big "THANKS" to each of you who have ordered something in the past and we look forward to helping others getting started. Now, on to the goodies!

Karl & Jenny Moulton

396) 03/23/44 Col. J. W. Flanagan Gold, 119 pgs., 1681 Lots

Ancient, European, South American, and impressive U.S. issues such as 1875 Proof Gold, 1815 & 1819 Half Eagles, 1828/27 & 1829 Half Eagles, 1795 PL-UNC Eagle, Terr. Gold. The most important part of this sale is the last lot which is plated - THE 1933 DOUBLE EAGLE! This is the only known auction appearance of this rare coin ever in U.S. numismatics. Unfortunately, the United States Secret Service confiscated this piece without due legal process.30.

SOME COMMENTS ON THE 1933 DOUBLE EAGLE

It is both shameful and disgraceful that no numismatic organization in the entire United States came forward with a challenge to the U.S. Secret Service concerning the confiscation of the 1933 Double Eagle that surfaced last year in New York City.

The American Numismatic Society did nothing. The American Numismatic Association did nothing. The Professional Numismatists Guild did nothing. Everyone down to the local coin clubs, did absolutely nothing.

Like all government conspiracies, the truth behind the decision to confiscate will never be fully disclosed, and the reason for their actions will not be discussed with the general public, which is you and me.

The only way to substantiate the Secret Service's claim of 1944 is by a congressional hearing and subsequent pressure to arrive at the truth of the matter. The 1933 Double Eagle is a National Treasure in that it was the last $20 Gold coin ever struck. The first $20 Gold coin (1849) is already in the possession of the government.

There are many people willing to pay well over $1 million to own a 1933 Double Eagle — but not one dollar was raised to keep it in public hands, which is where it legally belongs, according to contemporary documentation from the U.S. Treasury.

There has been nothing reported about this coin in over a year. This only strengthens the government's position in their cover-up attempt. The 1933 Double Eagle confiscated last year was not donated by a private individual for tax reasons; instead it was pirated away from private hands by over-zealous Secret Service agents. Nothing has ever been documented supporting the government's position that 1933 Double Eagles were never legally issued. These coins were (and still should be, as official documentation is lacking) legally held in public domain for over 10 years from 1933 to 1944, when they were first confiscated. The first being the Col. Flanagan coin in the 03/23/44 Stack's sale.

The National collection in the Smithsonian obtained their 1933 Double Eagle a year after it was struck, in 1934. Several numismatists obtained theirs earlier in 1933, yet those have been confiscated. One example was owned and publically exhibited in 1937 by F.C.C. Boyd. He had acquired both the 1933 Eagle and Double Eagle quite probably at the same time in the spring or summer of 1933.

Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau, Jr. took office in 1934 upon the resignation of numismatist and then Treasury Secretary William H. Woodin. Imagine being a dedicated numismatist in charge of the destruction of all gold coins turned in. Those not complying with FDR's midnight proclamation were under penalty of imprisonment and/or a $10,000 fine.

Since Morgenthau and FDR were both in office during this time frame (1934-1945), and the coins had been considered legal to hold before the Flanagan coin appeared, who exactly was responsible for the change in Treasury Department policy? Was it the Secret Service, Secretary Morgenthau, or FDR? The only one with authorization to issue the decree was FDR. Where is the Executive Order regarding this official change in Treasury Department policy? This is the key to the solution. Does a valid contemporary law signed by FDR exist? Why have we not seen it?

If we are to blindly accept the position that the 1933 Double Eagle is illegal to own, then, in our ignorance, we should follow each other off the cliff and into the sea if that is our collective mentality. Have we deteriorated beyond a government of the people? Apparently, in this case, the sad answer has to be — yes.

466) 02/25/92 Ed Trompeter Pt. I, U.S. Gold, 238 pgs., 209 Lots

A spectacular offering of Proof and Mint State U.S. Gold coins of all denominations. The catalogue displays one coin, plated in color, per page. The photography is absolutely stunning. Only the material offered is more impressive. Gold $1 Proofs begin in 1855 and contain many pedigreed, condition census examples. The Proof Quarter Eagles begin in 1856 and end in 1915 with all the Matte Proof issues. The $3 Gold Proofs begin with 1854 and includes the 1875. There is a complete set of the four different varieties of Proof Stellas. Also, Bickford's 1874 International $10 Gold Piece is included, with pedigree. The 1879 Quintuple Stella is catalogued as the finest known. The true highlights are the complete sets of Indian Head Quarter Eagles, Half Eagles, and Eagles in Choice Uncirculated condition. There was to be a Part II; however, the heirs withdrew the balance of the collection after the catalogue had been readied for the printer, based in part on the advice of one of Superior's competitors. Perhaps someday the rest of "E.T.'s" collection will cross the auction block30.

W. ELLIOT WOODWARD

474) 2 Different Sales

Woodward was perhaps the most influential coin dealer of the 19th century. He rose to prominence during the Civil War. A druggist by profession, he may have secured a government contract to supply medicine to the Union Army after the Battle of Gettysburg. The high point occurred in 1867 with the purchase and auction sale of the Joseph Mickley Collection. Woodward's 108 sales covered everything in the way of coins, along with Indian relics, postage stamps, and other non-numismatic material. He was responsible for the development of the coin hobby as it is known today. It is surprising that there are no known pictures of him at this time. This lot provides a sample of the work of the most respected 19th century coin dealer. One final comment.....the largest sale Woodward catalogued was not comprised of coins, it was his own personal library of books! 35.
